Aunt Mary

Citizen and Churchman Dead.

A. Wellington Bird, a Godly man, full of days, full of good works and rich in the virtues that adorn christian character, passed to his reward Tuesday morning about 11 o'clock at his home at Mill Gap.

Mr. Bird was born in the vicinity in which he died about 67 years ago, and was a son of the late John C. Bird, the record of his father's family showing but two children, Mrs. Julia Hiner, who still survives, being a sister. Mr. Bird is also survived by his wife, whose maiden name was Miss Alice V. Shultz, and to whom he was married in 1881.

Deceased had been in declining health for more than a year, and for five or six months it was only too evident that death had marked him for his prey. Since the disease took a more serious turn, perhaps four months ago, he has been confined to his bed, a great charge as well as a great sufferer. Willing hands of loved ones and friends gladly ministered to him during these long months, and to them the christian resignation and experience of the good man will be helpful in future life.

Mr. Bird professed faith in early manhood, and from the time of his conversion to the day of his death the dominant purpose of his life was to be a christian, and to induce others who came within the sphere of that life to strive for moral and spiritual excellence. Naturally honest and sincere of spirit, he was susceptible of the full power of the gospel, and since entering the evening of life, he clung with a strong heart to the truths which were the life of his soul and of the church which he so ardently loved. At his request, during his last illness prayer and praise services were frequently held at his bedside, and at such times it was evident to all present that the Word was "food and drink" to him, and when asked as to his state of mind, he expressed himself humbly, yet confidently and hopefully; and until his faculties failed he ceased not to give evidence of a complete and triumphant victory over the last enemy.

He was a member of the M. E. Church, South, at Green Hill, and for a long time a Steward and Sabbath school superintendent. His leadership in church work there was fully appreciated and he will be greatly missed.

The funeral services took place at Green Hill, the church in which he had long worshipped, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, at the close of which his body was laid to rest on the hill near where his long and useful life had been spent. The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. G. W. Staples, and in spite of unfavorable weather, many friends and relatives attested their confidence and esteem by being present.

TRIMBLE

July 14, 1919

Children's Day was celebrated at Victory Chapel Sunday with a large crowd estimated at three or four hundred people. There were four Salvation Army boys there from Flint Michigan who took an active part in the service. One of the Salvation Army boys was a brother of Mrs. Jas. W. Gardner.

Administrator's Notice

All persons having claims against the estate of Mrs. Lydia V. Pullin, deceased, are requested to present the same properly proven to the undersigned administrator of said estate JOHN R. REXRODE, Admr. of Lydia V. Pullin, dec'd.

Cattle Killed

A very destructive charge of lightning visited Frank Bratton's herd of cattle last Saturday night, or early Sunday morning: Eleven fine two-year-old steers were killed under a large oak tree where they had made their bed for the night. He is said to have had 21 in the pasture and only 10 were left.

At prevailing prices it does not take a mathematician to discover that the loss is a heavy one.

Mr. Bratton's home is just below the Bath-Highland line.

Don't Keep Them Crying

There are ten thousand children in Virginia crying for attention and food. All of them are depending on the people of Virginia to give them a start in life, and the need is imperative—the recent epidemic of influenza caused many orphans.

This is a plea for YOU to help. Highland needs some thing like one hundred and twenty-five dollars to put it over the top. Let every one lend a helping hand in the closing hours of the campaign, and make it count. Don't wait until you are asked to help, but pitch in and make the little ones smile.
